Things to do

- Grab your bucket and spade (or walking shoes) and head to Petitenget Beach, whose sands stretch North towards Canggu and south to Kuta.
- Eating out in Seminyak requires careful research and planning; there's just so much choice! Everything from fine international dining to cheap n' cheerful gourmet burgers can be had in this diners paradise.
- Learn the secrets of Balinese spices and cuisine during a cookery class at Saté Bali Restaurant on Jalan Kayu Aya in Seminyak.
- Shop til you drop! In Seminyak and neighbouring Kerobokan where everything from designer fashions to original artwork to made-to-order 'antiques' and gorgeous home furnishings can be found within the maze of fascinating streets.
- On the beach is one of Bali's most sacred Hindu temples, Pura Petitenget, where some of the most spectacular Balinese ceremonies may often be witnessed.
- Chill out completely with an in-villa or dedicated spa massage or beauty treatment.
